“Then the word of God spread, and the number of the disciples multiplied greatly in Jerusalem, and a great many of the priests were obedient to the faith.”

Acts 6:7

“Preach the word! Be ready in season and out of season. Convince, rebuke, exhort, with all longsuffering and teaching.”

2 Timothy 4:2

DM2 UPDATE FROM BRET NAZWORTH

DM2 exists to inspire and equip churches as they seek to fulfill the Great Commission through evangelism and disciple-making. The paradigm of DM2 is replication. We encourage churches and individual teachers to make disciples who will themselves become disciple-makers. In this issue of our newsletter we are highlighting churches and individuals who are using the DM2 curriculum in their respective ministries.

exciting and encouraging to watch churches and individuals trust the Lord, and with a little innovation, smoothly transition into being effective disciple-makers. As a result, we are seeing the Word of God expand quickly. Nothing could be more inspiring than this!

Thanks to you all for partnering with us in this endeavor through your fervent prayer and financial support.

The material provided by DM2 can be rapidly mastered; it is designed to be used immediately after attending a workshop. Once the concept of disciple-making is grasped and the materials are understood, conveying it to others is simple. It is “Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may run swiftly and be glorified, just as it is with you, and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men; for not all have faith.”

2 Thessalonians 3:1-2

DM2 FROM THE PERSPECTIVE OF FIVE PASTORS

PASTOR JOHN CLARK:

Texas

The Panorama of the Old Testament curriculum is well-written and organized; as a pastor I am excited to see how the material has been easily assimilated into our weekly adult Sunday school class. It is great to see two of the gentlemen who attended the workshop in Tennessee now co-teaching the material with me – multiplication at its finest! It has been personally helpful for them, not only to have gone through the course, but now to re-study the material in order to teach it. We all seem to be absorbing a lot more information this time around as we re-listen to the lectures and re-study the material on our own. We look forward to continue using the Panorama curricula, and are excited for the release of the Panorama of the New Testament, which we plan to begin using once we finish the Old Testament curriculum.

PASTOR G. SHEARER:

Oregon

I just attended the DM2 workshop on Romans 1-8 in Spokane, WA and benefited from it greatly. The first eight chapters of Romans are presented logically and in a manner which demonstrates the flow of the book. It is designed to be learned and then taught to others – the discipleship principle. The Gospel is made very clear and the distinction between justification and sanctification is also presented clearly. I would highly recommend this workshop to other believers.

PASTOR ROBERT AMBS:

Texas

We are currently using the Panorama of the Old Testament curriculum in our Sunday school with good results. Our church sent one individual to the DM2 workshop in Tullahoma, TN in April of 2012. He returned from the workshop with a DVD of the program, a complete set of notes, and all the PowerPoint presentations on the material. He came back well-equipped to teach the material at our church in a Sunday school format. It has been a success – we have more church participation than we experienced previously and, those who attend are getting a solid understanding of the Old Testament. The Power Points provide a great teaching tool and add a sense of excellence to the classroom. Our students each take notes in their own notebooks during the study, and will have a complete set when we are done. We have extended our Sunday school class 15 minutes to have more time to work through the material.

PASTOR IGNACIO:

Bolivia

I am grateful to God for our time in Los Negros as it helped me understand Christology and complemented my understanding of the Roman's teachings.

I am going through children's curriculum that DM2 presented in Los Negros and am determined to start teaching biblical foundations to the children of the church using the lessons you provided. At the same time, we will teach the adults the Panorama of the Old Testament in order to study a course that parallels the children's curriculum. In home studies we are beginning to teach the Stranger on the Road to Emmaus.

We give you many thanks for your teaching and patience with us over the long haul. The study of Romans has removed the blindfolds from my eyes. Please continue to pray for the work in Bolivia.

PASTOR CLAY WARD:

Tennessee

DM2's biblical method of teaching faithful men who then are prepared to teach others (2 Timothy 2:2) definitely works! Usually, when we think of DM2, we think of Bolivia, Zambia, or Sierra Leone; however, we should also think of Denver, Spokane, Tullahoma, and other cities in America that are training willing and eager disciple-makers at home.

God established the local church as the primary means of teaching and training the saints (Ephesians 4:12-16). DM2 provides the encouragement and materials to help local churches both here and abroad do just that. In our church, faithful men are teaching the Life of Christ curriculum. Both teachers and listeners are encouraged, enlightened, and energized from this organized and encapsulated method of teaching God's Word. I stand humbled by the willingness and abilities of these men to step up and take responsibility to teach the infallible Word of God to their families, friends, fellow church members, and even believers in other countries.

Only the spiritual solution of the Gospel and the clear teaching of God's truth can change an individual, a culture, or a country. We must all ask ourselves if we are helping or hindering in this God-commanded work of making disciples and sending them forth to give God's Word at home and in the uttermost parts of the world.

DM2's goal is to help you devour the Word of God and then to watch you soar on your own without their assistance. I challenge other churches to provide opportunities for faithful men to teach others to be disciple-makers, with or without DM2.

DM2 TESTIMONIES

JESSICA BUCHOLZ: Attending the Roman's workshop was a blessing that changed my life. It altered how I view myself as a servant to the Lord and revealed who I am in the eyes of God. These life lessons have strengthened my Christian walk. This opportunity will stand out as an important turning point in my faith.

RACHEL MUSSER: I am so thankful for this opportunity to learn and grow in this workshop and I would recommend it to everyone! Not only did it strengthen my faith, it helped me realize that God can use someone as young as I am to be a disciple-maker.

RYAN KORVER: I'm so thankful for the opportunity to attend the workshop in Spokane! It was an answer to a prayer that I have had for a long time.

I have been disappointed with the discipleship materials I've seen over the years. Almost all have lacked sound doctrine and the application of God's Word, especially for the new believer in Christ. When Christians are not grounded in the key truths of the faith, they are easily led astray. Years later, they wonder why the Christian life does not work for them.

The materials in the Romans 1-8 workshop provide the necessary doctrinal truths to give an old or new believer in Christ the Biblical knowledge necessary to live the Christian life the way God designed it. As believers in Christ we must rest in the truth of our eternal security and have complete assurance that our salvation will never be lost. We stand on the person and the work of Christ and the promises of God! Until this is settled once and for all in our minds we cannot grow into the mature believers God desires us to become.

Thankfully this knowledge can be found in the Romans 1-8 workshop by DM2 where the topics of the Gospel and eternal security are clearly taught and given the proper emphasis needed today.

I'm so excited to partner with DM2 for the resources they are providing churches around the world. And I'm looking forward to teaching the materials in small groups and at my church. I pray that God will provide all the resources needed to get these materials into the hands of believers around the world!
